

Occupational Health and Safety Policy

Scanmast shall provide a safe and sound work environment. Work shall be conducted so that injuries and ill-health are prevented by:

- Fulfilling the requirements according to ISO 45001
- Working safely or not at all
- Integrating work environment issues into our processes and working methods
- Continuously identifying hazards and managing risks
- Implementing work environment efforts so that accidents, occupational injuries, and other ill-health do not occur, and continuously improving work environment performance
- Conducting operations in such a way that laws and regulations are complied with